5 OF THE SECRETARIAT
20 JULY 1943
REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY
AND LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

RA 24-41-116

IN THE COURT OF THE ELECTION COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Dated this 8th day of October 1941.

Present:

C. NARAYANASWAMY NAIDU, ESQ., B.A., B.L.,
Election Commissioner,

R. A. E. Mis. No. 52 of 1940-41.

Petitioner:-	Vs.	Respondent:-
Mr. K. Narase Gowda, son of Kare Gowda, Land-lord, residing in Thattahalli, Nagamangala Taluk, Mandya District.		Mr. M. Sankar Linge Gowda son of Linge Gowda, Land-holder, residing in Mylarapatna, Nagamangala Taluk.

I. Petition filed under Rule 173 of the Representative Rules of 1940.

II. The petition was filed before Government on 11-3-1941 and it was received in this Court on 19-4-41.

III. The respondent filed his objections on 30-6-1941.

IV. The following issues were framed on 1-7-1941.

(1) Was the notice of candidature of the petitioner improperly rejected on the ground that he did not mention his date of birth?

(2) Are not the ground of rejection according to law?

(3) To what relief, if any, is the petitioner entitled?

V. The case came up for arguments on 9-7-1941 and by adjournments to 4-10-1941.

Mr.

Mr. M.P. Somasekhara Rao appeared for the petitioner and Mr. A.J. Khaleel appeared for the respondent.

R e p o r t.

1. The notice of candidature of the petitioner was rejected on the ground that he did not enter his date of birth in it.

2. The High Court has decided in Mis.Appeal No.12 of 41-42 that both the date of birth and the age should be entered in Column 3 of the notice of candidature.

3. The petitioner stated that he ~~does~~ did not know the date of his birth and that therefore he could not enter it in the notice of candidature.

4. The learned Counsel for the petitioner seeks to distinguish this case from the case decided in Mis. Appeal No.12/41-42. His contention is that since the petitioner did not know ~~his~~ the date of his birth and could not ascertain it, it was not necessary for him to enter it in the notice of candidature. He relied upon the observation made by the learned Chief Justice in the Judgment in Mis.Appeal No.12 of 41-42, Viz., " In the present instance we have a candidate, who it is not suggested, was ignorant of the date of his birth but who chose not to state it, although it is clear from the wording of Form III that he was expected to state it and it was the intention of the Government in making the rules and prescribing that form that he should state it."

5. But the context in which this portion appears should be taken into consideration and the whole paragraph in which it appears and also the other portions of the Judgment which have a bearing on the point should be read with it. Particular reference may be made to the following:-

with

" Not one of us knows, of his own knowledge, the date of his birth. We have all ascertained it, if we know it, from some one else or from records. In this State for very many years births have been registered both in Municipal Areas and in villages. A very large proportion of the Hindu population have horoscopes, which indicate the dates of their birth. Although a man may not know the date of his birth, when he sets out or decides to be a candidate for election, it does not follow that, if he took the necessary trouble, he would not be able to ascertain it. In fact in this case it has not been suggested before us that the respondent could not have ascertained the date of his birth. He took it upon himself to regard this as an unnecessary requirement in Form No.III and so he disregarded it. I doubt whether there is any very great hardship, as has been represented and was represented before the Election Commissioner, in requiring candidates to give the dates of their birth as the Government have required under their rule making power."

"Rule 96 provides that a Returning Officer may reject any notice of candidature on the ground that there has been any failure to comply with any of the provisions of rule 89. Can it be reasonably said that the respondent in this case did not fail to comply with any requirement of rule 89. I think it is clear that he did fail to comply with a prescribed requirement — a requirement prescribed by that rule — when he did not complete his notice of candidature in Form III by giving the date of his birth as well as his age."

6. It therefore becomes clear that the age and the date of birth should be given in the notice of candidature independent of the question whether the candidate knew the date of birth or not, when he delivered the notice of candidature.

7. The notice of candidature was not therefore improperly rejected.

8. The petitioner may be directed to pay Rs.50/- as costs to the Respondent.

9. I recommend accordingly.

Dictated to the Steno-typist and after revision signed.

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF H.H. THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Election Petition No. of 40-41.

Petitioner:	Opponent:
K. Narase Gowda, s/o Kare Gowda, aged 45 years, Land-Lord, residing in Thatta-Halli, Nagamangala Taluk, Mandya distt.	M. Sankar Linge Gowda, s/o Linge Gowda, aged about 44 years, Land-holder, residing in Mylarapatna, - Nagamangala TALUK.

UNDER RULE 173 OF THE MYSORE REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY RULES 1940.

R.A. & Pet No. 52 (Mandya Rural)

The petitioner abovenamed begs to state as follows:

1. That the petitioner was a candidate for election to the Representative Assembly from the Nagamangala Taluk Rural Constituency at the elections announced to be held on 8-2-1941.

2. That on 10-1-1941 his notice of candidature was erroneously rejected on the ground that he had not given his date of birth. The endorsement is herewith produced.

3. That as a result of such rejection the opponent was declared elected unopposed.

4. That the rejection is erroneous and unsustainable. The rules require that the Candidate must be not less than 25 years of age. The petitioner had given his age age as 45 years and the same has not been doubted. The date of birth is called for only as a means of verifying or checking the correctness of the age given; and where such age is far above the required age and isnot doubted, the mere omission to give the date of birth cannot vitiate the notice. The requirement regarding date of birth is only directory and not mandatory. In fact the petitioner does not know the date of his birth and it cannot operate to deprive him of his right to stand as a candidate for election to the Representative Assembly.

5. That the election of the opponent based on such erroneous rejection is liable to set aside.

6. That petitioner has deposited Rs. 100/- as per receipt No. 88 dated 10-3-1941 of the Taluk Treasury at Nagamangala, produced herewith.

The petitioner, therefore, prays that the election of the opponent from Nagamangala Taluk Rural Constituency to the Representative Assembly may be set aside and fresh election ordered.

Mis. No. 52 of 1940-41.

Petitioner:- ~~Kempe Gowda~~ Narabe Gowda

- vs -

Respondent:- Sankarlinge Gowda.

1. The Respondent abovenamed begs to state as follows:-

2. The allegation in para 4 of the petition that his petition was erroneously rejected is not true.

3. It is not true to say that on the rejection of the petitioner who was one of the six candidates for a constituency which had to return two candidates, the respondent was declared elected un-opposed.

4. Para 4 of the petition is argumentative and this respon'ent does not feel to be called-called upon to meet the observations regarding the necessity or other-wise of the rule framed making it obligatory to mention certain things in the notice to be given to the Returning - Officer. This respondent does not admit the correctness of the position taken by the petitioner. His ignorance of his date of birth even to-day does not go to legalise an illegal act. If he wants to be the chosen representative of the people he should not be ignorant of certain things about himself which law enjoins upon him to know. Further it is not open to the petitioner to sit in judgment over the enactments duly passed and promulgated as law and he is not permitted to weigh which portion of the section is directory and which is mandatory.

4. The election of the respondent is not erroneous. It is respectfully prayed that the petition may kindly be dismissed with costs.

Scrutiny taken up at 1 P.M. in the presence of a few candidates but this candidate not present. His application is for a seat in the General - Rural Constituency Nayanayakanahalli which the security is only Rs 25/- and is in respect of a reserved seat in Nayanayakanahalli general constituency. The notice of candidature is therefore invalid and void as it is not made clear in which constituency the applicant desires to stand as a candidate. If he intended to stand for a seat in the general constituency at Nayanayakanahalli he must have deposited Rs 150/- and not Rs 25/- which is the security prescribed for the reserved seat. There is no reserved seat in Nayanayakanahalli general constituency. There are 7 candidates in the field.

Sir,

I beg to report that Seven notices of Candidature were received by me in time from the marginally noted persons desiring to stand for election to the R. A. from the Nagamangala Taluk General Constituency. On Scrutiny of the said notices of Candidature six notices of Candidature were not found to be in Conformity with the Rules 89 & 96 of the R. A Rules and hence were rejected. Only one notice of Candidature from Sri. Sankaralinge Gowda of Keylarapatna was found to be Correct in all respects. He was duly declared elected under Rules 101 (2) of the R.A Rules as an R.A. member from the Nagamangala Taluk General Constituency.
